

Rudy Flores Bio:

Rudy Flores has an extensive percussive background that ranges from jazz and orchestral ensembles to marching bands and drum corps. He studied Music Education at Western Connecticut State University and has been involved in the activity for 16 years. He has been an educator for 11 years and has taught, consulted, and arranged for many groups including Connecticut Hurricanes Senior Drum and Bugle Corps, Kilties Senior drum and Bugle Corps., and WGI independent open bronze medalist Stryke Percussion. He was also the Program Coordinator/Battery Arranger/Visual Designer for John I Leonard Highschool Winter Percussion. Currently Rudy is the Percussion Director/Battery Arranger for Santaluces Community High School, and battery arranger for Stryke Percussion.

Rudy's experience includes:

- Member/Percussion Captain Norwalk High school marching band 1995-1998
- Music Education Studies Western Connecticut State University 1998-2000
- Member of Ice Storm Winter percussion 1998
- Member/Snare technician Connecticut Hurricanes Senior Drum and bugle corps 1995-2000
- Member Crossmen Drum and Bugle Corps 2001,2002
- Percussion instructor Masuk high school 1998-2000
- Battery Instructor Brien McMahon High School 2000-2003
- Battery Arranger/Percussion Director Santaluces Community High School 2003-2005
- Battery Arranger Santaluces Community High school 2005
- Percussion Instructor John I Leonard High school Marching Band 2004
- Snare Technician Stryke Percussion 2004-2005
- Battery Arranger/Associate Director Stryke Percussion 2006-2007
- Battery Arranger Stryke Percussion 2008
- Battery Arranger/Percussion Director Olympic Heights High School Marching Band 2005-2006
- Battery Arranger/Percussion Director John I Leonard Marching Band 2007,2008
- Battery Arranger/Percussion Director/Visual Design/Program Coordinator John I Leonard Winter Percussion 2007,2008
- Currently a Vic Firth Educator